The Message.

The second message of President Cleveland shows clearly that he has reached a stage where the visions of a second term and the consideration of the means of obtaining it are even present to his mind. The main points upon which the messages rise to the dignity of discussion are the tariff, silver, and perhaps the Indian question. As to the others it is in the main non-nonsensical. He declares steadily for a revenue tariff. To come from laboring men the reduction of wages which must come to them if his views are carried out he holds out the alleviations of cheap food and cheap clothing. While he argues the benefit of low tariff to the farmer in one portion of his message in another he calls their attention to the fact that their products now struggle in foreign free-trade markets in a competition which causes distress to the American farmer.

The presidential part of the tariff question is found in the endorsement of Secretary Manning's recommendation of free wood. The Secretary is Cleveland's political manager. He sees that the vote of the New York, Ohio, Michigan and the other wool states, can not be had for a Democratic President. Their vast wool not resting therefore, he is safely seized in order to reduce the surplus. On the other hand, the sugar of Louisiana, which yields such enormous revenue, is left intact, since the Democrats of the state gave general notice in the last Congress that they could not answer for its remaining Democratic if the sugar interest was struck down.

The same political idea seems to control in the management of our foreign affairs. There is not a word in the message to show that a single American vessel has been seized by Canada. There is a mild statement that in view of his great desire for friendly relations he does not think the conduct of Canadian officials of late has been quite courteous as they should have been. This is all, except that Congress will hear further from him on the subject. There are no Democratic electoral votes from the New England fishing states. But when it comes to the case of that unquestioned adventurer Cuttig, and to him stern to the feelings of his party toward illustrating he has much to say of the sacred rights of citizens, of national honor, and the protection which should be given to every American.

On one hand there is absolute silence where vessel loads of citizens have been seized with their ships at the mouths of hostile cannon. On the other hand, loud and prolonged talk in defense of an adventurer who received much milder treatment than he deserved at the hands of the Mexican Government. His recommendations serve to restrain District Attorney Stone, Republican, who was suspended for making political address in the recent canvass, are these words:

Mr. Stone and others of like disposition are not to suppose that party lines entitle us to infer that the administration of the Government is to be trusted, in principle or law, to those who aggressively and constantly endeavor, untruly, to destroy the confidence of the people in the party responsible for such administration.

The President, in another portion of the same letter, accepted the truth of Stone's statement that he did not neglect any outlet day in making the specimens for which he was suspended. Mr. Cleveland, therefore, in denying to Stone, Republican, what he had just previously conceded to Benton, Democrat, simply announces that the right of freedom of speech, which is freely extended to Democrats, is withheld from Republicans. At the same time he emphasizes the hypocrisy of his previous declarations made just before his inauguration that review, from office would be needed for inefficiency on the part of the official, and not for political reasons.

A Captain's Fortune Discovery.

Capt. C. E. King, of Weymouth, playing between Atlantic City and N. Y., has been treated with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard in the Cigarom house and on board the steamer. Fine Friend Stories of this Standard Remedy at Hinde & Phillips' Drugstore.

The New York Sun has Cleveland's letter to District Attorney Stone as an utterance with which the idea of a non-partisan civil service fades away. We believe that the Sun is correct in its diagnosis; but what shall be said of Cleveland's previous hankering? And then who will comfort the Mugwump? For as the Sun ingeniously remarks, "They have asked for bread, and they've got Mr. Stone on their hands."

IT IS WONDERFUL

how suddenly rheumatism begins, and how suddenly it grows in the system, until one is startled to find it's victim in either the anterior or posterior form. He sees the power of the disease of his spine and the sufferings of his limbs.

Proudly to my disease have physicians given me stabs, and none has more completely failed than their efforts to provide a panacea and until Athelphorus was discovered, I was in despair, which could save my rheumatism, neuralgia and various or sick headache. Thomasus to him, like the following prove beyond question that Athelphorus is the only reliable remedy, and that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Englewood, Kansas. Athelphorus has done me good than all other medicine put together, for I was a sufferer from rheumatism and neuralgia and can say today, I am free from both.

W. S. Hopkins, 179 W. Avenue, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. My wife has been a sufferer with inflammatory rheumatism at the same time. The lower back was swollen; the pain seemed to go up and down; she was out of the question; they suffered so much that however even though the sheet on the bed would cause the most violent pain, yet she would lie on it. I used to sit at her side and pray for her, and say, "I hope you will get well again." I thought of modulating, then I layed an Athelphorus for a while, gave relief until I laid an Athelphorus. I bought a bottle of essence, and helped to lay it in a very short time. The swelling was reduced, the pain less, and they were very well. Athelphorus is the only reliable remedy, and that it will do all that is claimed for it.
